

Principal's Visit

September 30, 2011

Zoe's Dad, Mr. Bryan Kalsu, visited our Center on Friday, September 30. Mr. Kalsu is principal at Parkview Elementary, Mid-Del Schools. He spoke to the children about how proud he was of the way they were using their good listening ears and learning to be good readers and all-around good students. He emphasized that he was so proud of Zoe for being able to tell him the different parts of the book they were reading at home.

He read the book, What Did You Do Today? We want to thank Mr. Kalsu for sharing his career choice with us. We will not be able to have any additional guest speakers until after our validation visit; however, we invite any family member willing to share with us to speak to Mrs. Erbin for a future date. Thank you again, Mr. Kalsu, for sharing your time and experiences with us.
