

Santa Retrieves Runaway Gingerbread Men

December 010, 2009

Preparing

After listening to the story of The Gingerbread Man, the children of the Child Development Center dramatized the story (with the help of students and faculty of EOC Technology Center). The children prepared the cookies and placed them in the oven in our Food Service area. When returning to get the gingerbread men, the children discovered that they had escaped from the oven and were seen chasing around the campus saying, "Run, run as fast as you can; you can't catch me. I'm the Gingerbread Man!" We were sent from department to department with the information that we were fast on their trail. We even found clues to their whereabouts along the way. The children had a great surprise when finding them, as Santa Claus was waiting for us with a tray of the Gingerbread Men in his lap!

Even though Santa is very busy this time of year, he took the time to sing some songs with us, visit with the children and have pictures made with each child. If parents wish to purchase a picture of their child with Santa, see Mrs. Erbin or one of the teachers for details.

He ran away!
